Paragon Says Hello To 1400 Van Ness

Paragon Real Estate Group celebrated the grand opening of its new offices at 1400 Van Ness in San Francisco with Champagne and live music on March 19. The company acquired the neoclassical building earlier this year as part of a unique co-ownership with its agents. Founded in 2004, Paragon continues to be the fastest-growing real estate brokerage in SF with sales nearing $1 billion for 2008. "1400 Van Ness is a physical manifestation of our success and an exciting opportunity for the company and our agents to invest in a significant commercial building," says Paragon co-founder Sally Stull.
